

“The Gathering Storm: What to Expect from the Anticipated Flood of Harvey-Related Litigation”

INSURANCE LAW WEBINAR

THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 2018 ♦ 12:00 P.M. – 1:00 P.M. CENTRAL TIME

Earn 1.0 hour MCLE credit!

About the Webinar: Jeff Raizner will talk about issues deriving from Hurricane Harvey as it relates to 3 main types of potential claims that we’ll see play out in litigation over the next few years and how they correlate with each other. First, there are the inverse condemnation claims for people affected by the Addicks and Barker dam releases and the various actions that have been filed with the Court of Federal Claims. We’ll give an overview on the status of the litigation and a brief case law overview on federal takings. Next will be windstorm claims that property owners may have under a commercial property or homeowners policy, how the recent changes to the Texas Insurance Code will play into future litigation, the benefits of consolidating litigation, and lessons from Ike. And finally, there will be a brief discussion on how litigation over flood claims differ from litigation under the Texas Insurance Code related to windstorm claims, set against the backdrop of the various NFIP policies vs. private policies.

Presenter: Jeffrey L. Raizner, Raizner Slania LLP, Houston, Texas

*Sponsored by The Insurance Law Section of the State Bar of Texas
